

European Union Baroque Orchestra

May 2016 Concerts of the EMBA Project

Under the auspices of the Dutch Presidency of the Council of the European Union the EUBO Mobile Baroque Academy (EMBA) will celebrate the Europe Day on 9 May 2016 with a concert uniting musicians from EUBO and the European Opera Centre at St John's Smith Square in London, at the invitation of the European Commission. A selection of baroque repertoire highlighting the history of music publishing in The Netherlands has been chosen for the occasion. The performance will be directed by violinist Rachel Podger, one of the world's leading interpreters of baroque and classical music.

The concert tour of EUBO and Rachel Podger continues with three further performances of a programme including Concertos for multiple instruments by Albinoni and Van Wassenaer, a suite of dances from Lully's opera Phaëton and Vivaldi's Violin Concerto in E from L'Estro Armonico performed by Rachel. EUBO performs in its 'home town', Echternach in Luxembourg, on Wednesday 11 May, at the Tage Alter Musik Regensburg in Germany on Sunday 15 May and makes a welcome return to the London Festival of Baroque Music in the UK on Thursday 19 May 2016.

Creative Europe 18th Century Style

new technologies, new enterprises, new audiences

European Union Baroque Orchestra

Rachel Podger, director & violin (UK)

Composers, innovators and entrepreneurs in London (Walsh) and Amsterdam (Roger) revolutionised the European music publishing industry and widened access to music and audiences across Europe in the 18th Century. You will find that when EUBO and violinist Rachel Podger perform this repertoire some spontaneous decisions might well be taken in the true spirit of the time!
